

SEMARC Program Calendar for 2026

3/31/26 Update

January Annual Meeting No program	February Gary, WK0X on nuclear radiation, measuring it, differentiating between ionizing and non-ionizing radiation...and more	March Brent Petit, WGOA discusses HF digital modes, HF and VHF packet radio, JS8call and VarAC; learn about his digital journey	April John, KOJDD takes on WSPR, how to do it, how to use it: The program ends a WSPR Week, where members are encouraged to use the mode and bring screen shots of their propagation reports	May Darreck, K000I talks about MeshCore, how to use it, its place in ARES work: also, a brief update on plans for the annual REP drill	June Field Day No program
July John, KOJDD on AllStar Link, a network of ham repeaters, base stations, and hotspots connected By VOIP	August John Pope, WA0VPI discusses IHS, prep for medical missions in the Honduras and the ways ham radio helps this initiative	September Rosalie White, K1STO experienced ham, staff of the ARRL for more than twenty years and now an ARISS International Delegate and ARRIS USA senior management team member	October Member discussion on how we each got into ham radio; other neat stories – supplemented with a member show and tell of their projects	November Tentative program by the developer of HamClock	December No Meeting No Program

